

STUDENT ADVOCACY

A part of the Legal Information Clinic at McGill.

The Student Advocacy office is an independent, free, and bilingual service for McGill students, run by upper year law students.

Are you dealing with one of the following issues?

- Accusations of plagiarism or cheating
- Issues with your professor or supervisor
- Sexual violence or harassment
- Discrimination or unfair treatment

Contact the Student Advocacy Office:

(514) 398-4384
info.studentadvocacy@licm.ca

680 Sherbrooke St W
Montreal, QC
Room 150

ADVISE

We inform you of your rights and help you navigate McGill's procedures.

NEGOTIATE

We facilitate discussion and negotiation between you and the University.

REPRESENT

We represent you at University hearings and help you prepare evidence.