

In over your head?

The Legal Information Clinic at McGill can help!

The Legal Information Clinic at McGill provides free, confidential, and bilingual legal information. The Student Advocacy service provides free and confidential advice and representation to students in disputes within the McGill community. The LICM is a non-profit, student-run service.

Legal Information

Researches the law for you

Explains the law in simple terms

Provides commissioner of oaths services

Offers "Just Info" presentations on specific legal topics

Gives legal information, not advice

Student Advocacy

Provides advice regarding McGill policies

Advises students in informal and formal disputes within the University

Negotiates disputes with supervisors or other University members

Represents students at McGill hearings

Explains how McGill's policies apply to your situation

licm.mcgill.ca
@LICM.CIJM

Legal Information:
(514) 398-6792
Student Advocacy:
(514) 398-4384

680 Sherbrooke St W
Montréal, Québec
Room 150

